SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Emil Beyer has two guests with us this morning under the South balcony, Robert Icenogle from Springfield, Nebraska, and Wanda Glashoff of Gretna, Nebraska. Please welcome them to the Legislature. Senator DeCamp wishes to withdraw a bill, Senator DeCamp.

SENATOR DeCAMP: Mr. President, this bill was put in there in case the Supreme Court decision went, "the wrong way," and the Supreme Court decision came down last week and it went, "the right way" and said that a law we had passed was constitutional, therefore, we don't need to worry about the Supreme Court decision anymore or the law being unconstitutional, so, therefore, we don't need 427 which was sitting there as a vehicle to address that particular problem if the decision went the wrong way.

SPEAKER NICHOL: All those in favor of withdrawing the bill please vote aye, opposed no. Please vote. Ladies and gentlemen, please let's have a vote on this and the next few items will go rather fast so if you would pay a little attention I would appreciate it. Record, Mr. Clerk.
